Shauna Prewitt

special guest speaker

Shauna Prewitt is an author, attorney, advocate and public speaker. While attending the University of Chicago, the course of Shauna's life changed forever when she became a victim of sexual assault. Shauna soon thereafter learned that she was pregnant from her attack. After deciding to continue the pregnancy and raise her child, Shauna was shocked when her attacker sought custody of her baby girl. She was even more astonished when she learned that few legal protections exist to protect the women who become mothers as the result of rape. Spurred by these events, Shauna made a commitment to do what she could to change custody laws around the nation. Michigan's Rape Survivor Child Custody Act that was signed into law on May 3, 2016 directly addresses this issue and was inspired by Shauna's story.
